

I "lai" Vietnam

an adventure of Vietnamese language and culture

Authors

- Dr. Trần Thị Minh, Nguyen Tat Thanh Hi-tech Institute, Nguyen Tat Thanh University, Ho Chi Minh city, Vietnam

- Gregor Gawellek, University of Hamburg, Hamburg, Germany

Starting point

- The need and the advantages of learning Vietnamese heritage language of Vietnamese immigrants abroad (Mu 2015, Torres 2016, Tran 2008, Tran 2021)
- The need of sustainable development of education during the rapid technological change .
- The need to have an inovative, effective and systematic learning platform based on 6 levels of MOET for diverse learners.

Objective

Develop playfully teaching Vietnamese language, culture and history by using an attractive online game instead of "boring" lessons – a gamification of learning.

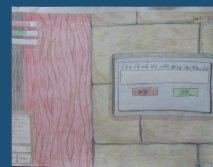

Target groups

- Young Vietnamese heritage speakers
- International students
- Ethnic students in Vietnam
- Young Vietnamese people

Innovative features

A story

References

- Mu, Guanglun (2015). Learning Chinese as a Heritage Language: An Australian Perspective Author. Bristol/Buffalo/Toronto: Multilingual Matters
- Torres, Julio (2016). Flipping the classroom: A pedagogical model for promoting heritage language writing skills. In: Diego Pascual y Cabo's (eds.): Advances in Spanish as a Heritage Language. 299-324
- Tran, Anh (2008). Vietnamese Language Education in the United States, Language, Culture and Curriculum. 21(3). 256-268.
- Tran, Thi Minh (2021). Vietnamese as heritage language: written performance of Vietnamese-German adolescents in Germany. Dissertation at the University of Hamburg.