

About

Stanford University is a private research university in Stanford, California. Stanford is known for its academic strength, wealth, proximity to Silicon Valley, and ranking as one of the world's top universities. Notably, Stanford ranks high and often first in many domestic college ranking measures. Globally, the Times Higher Education recognized Stanford as one of the world's "six super brands" on its World Reputation Rankings, along with Berkeley, Cambridge, Harvard, MIT, and Oxford while QS ranked Stanford the second place in the world's top universities. As of October 2018, 83 Nobel laureates, 27 Turing Award laureates, and 8 Fields Medalists have been affiliated with Stanford as students, alumni, faculty or staff. In addition, Stanford University is particularly noted for its entrepreneurship and is one of the most successful universities in attracting funding for start-ups and home to several Fortune 500 companies such as Alphabet Inc., Cisco, HP, Nike, and TSMC.

Covering 8,180 acres, Stanford has one of the largest university campuses in the US, with 18 interdisciplinary research institutes and seven schools. Stanford also has a rich tradition of fostering creativity and the arts: there is a vibrant campus arts district and two world-class museums which host regular exhibitions.

Website: <https://www.stanford.edu/>

Subject ranking by QS WUR 2019

- Biological sciences: #5
- Computer science & Information systems: #2
- Engineering & Technology: #2
- Mechanical Engineering: #2
- Electrical-Electronic Engineering: #2
- Natural sciences: #2

Contact

For further information about the Vingroup Science & Technology Scholarship Program, please send an email to scholarships@vingroup.net or call (+84) 24 7108-9779 (Ext: 9029).

Sources:

QS World Universities Rankings 2019; QS World Universities Rankings by Subject 2019

US News 2019