VIETNAM OVERVIEW

Geography:

Vietnam is a Southeast Asian country that borders China to the north, Laos to the northwest, Cambodia to the southwest, and the South China Sea to the east. The country is known for its stunning natural beauty, rich history, and diverse culture.

Hanoi is the capital city of Vietnam and is located in the northern part of the country. It is one of the oldest capital cities in the world, with a history dating back over a thousand years. The city is known for its vibrant culture, stunning architecture, and delicious cuisine.

Population:

According to the World Bank, Vietnam's population was approximately 101 million people in 2024, making it the 15th most populous country in the world. The population of Hanoi is estimated to be around 8.5 million people, making it the second-largest city in Vietnam after Ho Chi Minh City.

Climate and Weather:

Vietnam has a tropical monsoon climate, which means that it has two distinct seasons: a wet season and a dry season. The wet season lasts from May to October, with the heaviest rains falling in July and August. The dry season runs from November to April. The average temperature in Vietnam ranges from 22°C to 27°C, with the hottest months being June and July.

GDP:

According to an online article by Reuters (2025) Vietnam has experienced strong economic growth over the past few decades, with a GDP growth rate of 7.09% in 2023. The country has a rapidly growing manufacturing sector, with a focus on electronics, textiles, and footwear. The service sector is also an important contributor to the country's GDP, particularly in the areas of tourism and finance. In 2024, Vietnam's GDP was approximately $476 billion according to the World Bank.

Cost of Living:

Vietnam has a relatively low cost of living compared to many other countries, particularly in terms of food and accommodation. The cost of living in Hanoi is generally lower than in Ho Chi Minh City, but it can vary depending on the area. Prices for groceries, transportation, and healthcare are also relatively affordable in Vietnam.

It stands out against the dark sky and the surrounding city lights. The city below is densely packed with buildings, streets, and green spaces, all glowing with the lights of the night. The sky is a deep blue with some lighter clouds near the horizon.

WHY VIETNAM

Affordable Cost of Living: Vietnam is one of the most affordable countries in Southeast Asia to live in. Monthly expenses such as rent, food, and transportation are reasonably low, which makes it an attractive destination for students.

High-Quality Education: Vietnam has a well-established education system with a strong focus on academic excellence. The country has several internationally recognized universities and colleges that offer programs in various study fields.

Rich Culture and Diversity: Vietnamese culture is diverse and fascinating, with influences from China, France, and other Southeast Asian countries. Studying in Vietnam is an excellent opportunity to experience this unique culture firsthand.

Career Opportunities: According to the World Bank, Vietnam is currently experiencing significant economic growth, which is creating a demand for skilled workers in various sectors. As a result, international students who study in Vietnam have the opportunity to gain practical experience and job opportunities upon graduation.

Friendly and welcoming people: Vietnamese people are known for their friendliness and welcoming nature towards foreigners. As an international student studying in Vietnam, you will feel like part of the family in no time.

ABOUT VINUNI

VinUniversity (VinUni) is Vietnam's first private, not-for-profit university established on international standards, offering a fully English-speaking environment. It comprises four colleges: Arts and Sciences, Business and Management, Engineering and Computer Science, and Health Sciences.

Every aspect of the university - from curricula, research, and faculty to student body, facilities, and campus life - is developed to meet the highest standards set by the world's leading accrediting and ranking organizations, including ABET, AACSB, WFME, ACEN, Quacquarelli Symonds (QS), and Times Higher Education (THE).

VinUni's founding benefactor, Vingroup, is one of Asia's largest private conglomerates, focusing on Industrials & Technology, Real Estate & Services, and Social Enterprises. As part of the Vingroup ecosystem, VinUni students have opportunities to connect with leading research institutes (such as VinBigData), pioneering companies (including VinFast, Vinpearl, Vinmec, Vinschool, and Vinhomes), and a dynamic entrepreneurial ecosystem (VinVenture, VinMotion, VinRobotics, etc.).

In September 2024, VinUni became the youngest and fastest university globally to achieve QS 5 Stars, earning five stars in nine categories: global engagement, good governance, program strength, academic development, teaching, employability, facilities, arts, and social impact. In October 2024, VinUni was appointed by UNESCO as the first and only UNESCO University Chair in Vietnam, focusing on Environmental Leadership, Cultural Heritage, and Biodiversity. In March 2025, VinUni became the youngest university in Vietnam to achieve institutional accreditation from the Foundation for International Business Administration Accreditation (FIBAA), within five years of its inception.

As of June 2025, VinUni is transitioning into a research- and innovation-oriented university with an ambitious vision to join the world's top 100 universities. Our strategic focus includes attracting global academic talent, establishing integrated research-innovation-industry complexes, and launching excellent research clusters in five priority domains: (1) Brain, Artificial Intelligence, and Robotics; (2) Health Sciences; (3) Environmental Intelligence; (4) Intelligent Computing and Data Science; and (5) Policy Development and Sustainable Societies.

To support this transformation, Vingroup has committed an additional US$427 million investment into VinUni in the coming years. Central to this strategy is the "VinUni 500" initiative, aiming to recruit 500 top scholars and researchers worldwide.

WHY VINUNI?

Undergraduate students at VinUniversity can also apply for and participate in exchange programs at international partner universities. We are working with leading universities in the world to plan on the establishment of the exchange study programs for our VinUniversity students.

Clubs & Associations

VinUni has various student-run clubs and societies, including, cultural groups, performing groups, spiritual groups, sport and game clubs, student leadership and activism groups, student publications, etc. Joining student clubs or societies is a great way to sharpen your brain, learn new things, practice your leadership skills, and make friends who share your interests.

Health services

VinUni's on-campus clinic aims to provide high-quality, accessible, and confidential care to our students and staff. Students are welcome to use the VinUni medical clinic as their primary health care resource for the duration of their time at the university.

Clinic: 8:30 am - 5:30 pm on working day, VinUni Campus.
Medical Hotline (24/7) 0866200019

Counselling services

We have a range of support services to help you stay healthy so you can enjoy your time here. Book an appointment with our trained and experienced counselors whenever you need help. We provide services ranging from helping you find relief from current emotional distress, to exploring coping strategies, and advising you about pathways for long-term solutions.

Community services

Education at VinUniversity emphasizes the importance of learning for public service and the public good. Community-Based Learning (CBL) allows you and community organizations to work together to meet both their needs and your academic requirements. Not-for-profit and government organizations identify projects of research, analysis, or evaluation that would be helpful to them, their beneficiaries, or the wider community. These projects are then matched to courses at VinUniversity.

Student Services and International Support Center

This is a one-stop, student-led and integrated hub for:

- student-related inquiries
- connecting students with Department or College of interest
- promoting activities and events

The International Support Center, assists international students by providing guidance on cultural integration, global opportunities and essential services. It aims to ensure a seamless transition and a positive experience for students studying away from their home countries.

SHARING FROM INTERNATIONAL FACULTY & STUDENTS

"I really like the "Wines of the World" course, where we got to taste various wines in the meeting room on the 9th floor with a panoramic view of the campus. It's truly an unforgettable memory! Vietnam is so beautiful, and the food is really amazing. Don't hesitate to go to Vietnam on an exchange program. Remember to study diligently and gain plenty of experiences while you're here!"

Mees, Fabian, Daan and Quinten
Nyenrode Business University
Inbound Semester Exchange Students

"It has truly been priceless to be able to come to Vietnam, to work and more importantly learn alongside the whole VACEP team. I think it is one thing to study issues like adverse childhood experiences from the comfort of your own home, but having the opportunity to speak with community-based organizations and families who have been affected was eye-opening and reminded me of why I was doing this project in the first place."

Veronica Zellers
Cornell University
Inbound Student

"I had a great time. I'm definitely going to tell the first-year students next year that this is a great opportunity. I think especially for anyone who's interested in it. Working internationally or doing medical education work, this is such a unique opportunity to work in a brand new medical school, so I'll certainly encourage my classmates to come here if they're interested."

Daniel Hartman
University of Pennsylvania
Internship Student

"The students, faculty, and staff at VinUni were wonderful to work with: filled with enthusiasm for joint research and discussions with our students, they ensured that we had access to amazing sites, people, and experiences. They also met our desires for a meaningful learning and research experience sustained over the ten days."

Prof. Yves Tiberghien
University of British Columbia
Faculty lead for the UBC Go Global research seminar in Vietnam

"The concept of excellence resonates deeply with us, and through our interactions with your staff, students, and facilities, we are convinced it is a cornerstone of what you do here, something we aspire to achieve as well."

Professor Charles Arcodia
Griffith University
Faculty lead for Griffith Business School Study tour program in Vietnam

SHARING FROM INTERNATIONAL FACULTY & STUDENTS

"One of the major valuable experiences during the course that we had is the field trip where we went into the city center with Prof. Doanh, VinUni and HUST students to look at what's going on in Hanoi, figuring out what the current issues that the locals have, because as our goal is to problem-solve, we want to figure out what the exact problems we can address for the locals, rather than just having a general view of the situation."

Christopher Brasil
New York University
Inbound Short-term Student

"From my exposure with the classes taught in VinUni, I can say that the classes in VinUni were significantly more engaging. When you have a teacher who is dedicated to a smaller number of students, the ratio is more of a classroom, you'd really feel engaged, you feel like it's a conversation. And when you leave the class, you feel like you've learned without actually having to focus because the focus is always there."

Rani Mahassen
University College London
Inbound Short-term Student

"The hands-on approach inspired me to think outside the box and gain a deeper understanding of how robotics and automation are intricately integrated into various industries. Additionally, the field trips and expert insights further fueled my passion for robotics."

Max Tseng
The Hong Kong University of Science and Technology
Inbound Short-term Student

"The three words to describe this experience are: fun, balanced, and eye-opening. It's fun because I participated in many activities with my friends. It's balanced because it was not just playing but a good mix of work as well. And It's eye-opening because I experienced and learned a lot about Vietnamese culture."

Gerald Ann Yi Hern

NINH BINH

Overview

Situated near the southern margin of the Red River Delta, the Trang An Landscape Complex is a spectacular landscape of limestone karst peaks permeated with valleys, many of them partly submerged and surrounded by steep, almost vertical cliffs. Exploration of caves at different altitudes has revealed archaeological traces of human activity over a continuous period of more than 30,000 years. They illustrate the occupation of these mountains by seasonal hunter-gatherers and how they adapted to major climatic and environmental changes, especially the repeated inundation of the landscape by the sea after the last ice age. The story of human occupation continues through the Neolithic and Bronze Ages to the historical era. Hoa Lu, the ancient capital of Viet Nam, was strategically established here in the 10th and 11th centuries AD. The property also contains temples, pagodas, paddy-fields and small villages.
